$10,000 Emergency 'Fathers' Polio March Starts Wednesday at 7 p.m.

An emergency Fathers' March on Polio will attempt to raise $10,000 in Orinda Wednesday between 7 and 8 p.m.

Because of the rising incidence of polio in Orinda, as well as the rest of the county, regular March of Dimes funds have been exhausted and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has called an emergency march.

Since January 1, 152 cases have been reported in the county, with 68 of them occurring in Central Contra Costa County from Orinda to Pleasant Hill.

Although there were no new cases in Orinda this week, three new cases were reported in the area.

DAN LUCAS, WHOSE SON was stricken 11 years ago by polio, has consented to head the emergency drive with the assistance of Ernest Rahmeyer who has done an excellent job for the past three years.

Mrs. James Erwin has been appointed by the County Foundation Committee to speak at various service clubs in the area and she will be assisted by Miss Beverly Benson of Lafayette who was stricken with polio a year and a half ago.

Funds will be collected in the emergency march just as they have been in previous marches, with fathers collecting funds from door to door and depositing them in Orinda School at 8 p.m.

MERLE BROWN OF THE American Trust Company will be on hand to take charge of the money and the Sheriff's Office has agreed to cooperate.

Lucas commented, "Although we are going to try to cover every house in Orinda in this march we need more workers, because some who have helped in the past are away on vacation. I would like to make a strong appeal for volunteers.

"Although the treatment for my own son is at last finished, I feel sure that people in Orinda will join me in my desire to see that the treatment for the present victims will not have to be curtailed.

"IF YOU CAN HELP please call me at CLifford 4-5396. Come to Orinda School after the march and join us in coffee which has thoughtfully been donated. Help us celebrate going over the top."

The National Foundation has said that it is $20 million short of paying the polio bill this year, largely because of the staggering cost of a patient aid program which has given financial help to 67,000 polio patients stricken in previous years, plus an unknown number of new 1954 patients.

Another factor, the foundation said, was the unusually heavy costs of a polio prevention program responsible for the development of a trial polio vaccine.

School Trustees Adopt Policy on Transportation

A joint transportation policy has been worked out in a meeting with Lafayette, Orinda and Acalanes School District Trustees, according to Superintendent Joseph Sheaff.

Included in the agreement is the statement, "There is probably no street or road in the district which is absolutely safe for children to walk on alone.

"IT IS THE PARENTS' responsibility to escort their children to the nearest bus stop and supervise them at the stop whenever they deem it necessary or desirable.

"When a group of pupils at one stop becomes very large, it is the responsibility of the parents, with the help of the school principal, to organize parent supervision at the stop for the control and protection of the pupils and property."

Regarding new service, the boards agreed that it will be provided for pupils when there are five or more at one pick-up at least a half mile from an existing stop for elementary pupils or one mile for high school pupils, and a safe place to turn the bus around.

"TURNING WHICH requires backing up ordinarily is not safe. Existing service which does not meet these conditions will be eliminated."

As far as distance between stops is concerned, minimum distance will be two-tenths of a mile. No elementary pupils will be picked up within half a mile of school except across four lane highways.

Film on Safety

Orinda Rotarians saw a safety film produced by Gentral Motors Corporation at their meeting Wednesday noon at The Willows. Program chairman was Earl Cappel.

Next week John Ogden will be program chairman and will present Owen L. Jenkins, president of the E. C. Buehrer Associates, who will talk on the history and devlopment of material handling equipment.

The Rotarians won a softball game with the Orinda Lions Club Monday night 6-5 and have agreed for a re-match August 30 at 6:30 p.m. at Glorietta School.

Hupp Speaks to EBMUD Directors On Cooperation

James Hupp, acting chairman of the Orinda Planning Committee of the Orinda Association, appeared before the East Bay Municipal Utility District Board of Directors last Friday to urge "improved public relations."

He suggested to Louis Breuner, president, that Orindans had spent untold hours on the rezoning of EBMUD lands in Orinda and that "had everyone worked together from the start it could have been solved long ago."

Hupp was referring to the standing controversy over rezoning of Pine Grove land and the recent hassle over a 25 acre parcel on the west side of San Pablo Dam Road (see separate story).

REFERRING TO THE Special Business District rezoning of the San Pablo Dam Road tract, Hupp told the board, "I feel that the Planning Commission definitely had in mind a Special Business District for several reasons, including the fact that you had representatives present at the June 23 Planning Commission meeting and that it was reported adequately in The Orinda SUN.

"On July 27 I sent a three page letter to the Planning Commission and explained thoroughly our understanding of the action of June 23. That was read in its entirety on June 27 and we spoke specifically of the Special Business District."

HUPP EXPLAINED his purpose in appearing before the board as offering to cooperate to everyone's mutual benefit. "But when I suggested we work together to provide something mutually beneficial I got the worst tongue lashing from Breuner I have ever received from anyone," he said.

"He rehashed in detail all the misunderstandings and errors that have occurred for the past 10 years and said he was fed up with the people of Orinda and intimated this was all the result of a few people with wild ideas and that I was more or less the tool of business men in Orinda.

"MY SOLE PURPOSE in going there was that I wanted to offer to cooperate to everyone's mutual benefit. I thought we had something we could talk about, but apparently they refused to accept my idea," Hupp concluded.

The EBMUD board meeting was adjourned to next Wednesday when Breuner told Hupp "We will take care of a land transaction then."

Hupp said he did not indicate whether or not it would deal with Orinda, but that he could not imagine any other reason for his mentioning it.

Masons Get OK For Lodge Hall Near Crossroads

The way was paved Tuesday night for the construction of a Masonic Lodge hall on an acre parcel of land near the Orinda Crossroads when the County Board of Zoning Adjustment wave its approval to the application of the Orinda Masonic Building Association.

The lodge will be located on a parcel fronting 200 feet on the north side of proposed Altarinda Drive approximately 600 feet northeast of the San Pablo Dam Road.

Stipulated in approval by the Board of Zoning Adjustment was that the Masonic organization provide parking space for at least 50 cars and that a 25 foot setback be maintained.

Although no date of construction was available as of yesterday, the proposed building will be about 7000 square feet and a one story structure which will harmonize with surrounding architecture.

Temperatures

Orinda weather has been cooler than is generally normal for this time of year with typical East Bay fog banks nosing over the hills to descend on the local homes.

There was no rain this week' and temperatures fluctuated from the 60's to the 80's.

Here they are, day by day:

	High	Low
August 12	61	50
August 13	61	51
August 14	68	53
August 15	75	46
August 16	85	50
August 17	89	52
August 18	80	50

C of C Agrees With Broadmoor On Parking Lot

Final agreement between the Broadmoor Improvement Company and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce over community parking facilities for the proposed Lucky Market to be located on the west side of Moraga Highway next to Sprouse-Reitz Company were reached this week.

The combined parking lot, which will include a triangular section of land leased from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company by the chamber, will hold about 56 cars.

The Lucky lot will hold about 40, the chamber lot 16. A sign will be posted reading "Parking, 1 Hour," but it will have neither the chamber's nor Lucky's signature on it.

Lucky Stores will pave and maintain both lots if and when they conclude arrangements for the property.

According to D. A. Breed, vice-president of Broadmoor, negotiations are still being continued and he hopes to complete them "this week."

Internal Sewer Problems Urgent Says MacPhail

"The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District must solve its internal problems before it can attempt to solve the problems of the entire surrounding watershed," Director Campbell MacPhail told the Parkmead Improvement Association Tuesday night.

MacPhail was invited to speak to the group by President Warren W. Eukel.

MacPhail, who has filed for election in September to the post which he presently occupies by appointment, demonstrated the rapid growth of the area with topographical maps which showed the construction and dwellings as they existed in 1947 .

APPROXIMATELY 40 HOMES existed in the Parkmead district where ther are now over 200, and Newell Avenue extended only as far as the present Parkmead School.

"There will eventually be 175,000 people living within the present district boundaries," MacPhail said, "and we must prepare for them just as the utility companies are now preparing for them.

"This is not counting the approximate 100,000 others who will make their homes on lands within our watershed but not yet within the district. We are not ready to go beyond the perimeter of the district when we can't solve the problems of the people already living here and paying taxes."

HE EXPLAINED THAT this policy did not include commitments already made by the board for annexations, but referred to future annexations.

MacPhail explained that the district is operating at the legal tax limit for the first time in its history this year, and that a special meeting has been called for next Thursday at the sanitary district office, 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, for the purpose of discussing an expansion policy and the use of the funds which will be accrued through increased taxes.

Parents Should Register School Children Soon

Parents whose children have not previously attended school in the Orinda School District or whose children are entering kindergarten for the first time may register them at Orinda School from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff announced that school will start September 7 and that registration may be arranged the week prior to the opening, between August 30 and September 3.

Land Use Permit Withdrawn by Builder

A request for a land use permit for 10 foot side yard and 10 foot setback for a garage located on Lot 54, Moraga Estates, fronting on Southwood Drive approximately 200 feet east of Southwood Court was withdrawn from the Board of Zoning Adjustment Tuesday night.

The petitioner, Hofmann Developing Company, Inc., indicated it would conform to county specifications.

Less Cost, Fewer Ulcers Are Greyhound Advantages

By BILL STANTON

Ten out of 10 people who ride the Greyhound bus to San Francisco prefer it to any other available form of commuting.

I learned this the other day as I rode a bus to the city, hopping from seat to seat asking people what they thought of Greyhound service.

The trip was tied in with the joint campaign of The SUN and the Contra Costa County Commuters Association to encourage more bus riding and car pooling.

PURPOSE OF the campaign is to attempt to relieve traffic on Mt. Diablo Boulevard by reducing the number of cars that push back and forth in the daily commuter rush.

The least happy of the persons interviewed was a Walnut Creek woman who told me she felt riding is "unpleasant" and said, "I don't understand how people do it year in and out."

She added, however, that she had tried driving and found that it is "unpleasant, too."

"It is half an hour shorter, but it develops more ulcers," she said as she explained why she prefers the bus.

Asking that her name not be used, she told me she plans to quit her job after five months of commuting and that she has to take three additional buses after she arrives in San Francisco.

AND PERHAPS the most happy commuter I talked to was a Concord woman who replied "Oh, yes, it's wonderful" when asked if she liked Greyhound service.

A regular commuter, she has her own business in San Francisco and so can make her own hours. She also told me she takes no second bus, but walks to work after getting off the Greyhound.

The veteran among the people I talked to was J. K. Kirby of Pleasant Hill, who has been at it for seven years. He takes no second bus in his daily journey to 100 Sansome Street.

HE CHARACTERIZED the service as "wonderful" and said the only complaint he had was the system of handling cash fares, which he said is "antiquated" and "time consuming."

Driving to work is "too nerve wracking," he added.

Elaine Stockinger of Gregory Gardens told me she had commuted for the past six months and considered Greyhound service "good."

She travels daily to Second and Market Streets, works from 8:30 to 5 p.m. and has never tried to commute any other way except by bus.

A man who had only resumed commuting three weeks before, after a year of non-travel, told me he considered the bus the "only way" to go from Concord to 838 Market Street.

He said he felt service is good and when asked why he preferred the bus to his own car, he answered, "Did you ever drive?"

BURKE HAMLIN of Estrella Rancho told me he had been commuting only since March 1, when he moved to this area. Commenting on the service, he said, "Some of it is good."

He also said he drives to his office about three times a month when he needs to use his car during the day.

Dorothy Crouch of Pleasant Hill, who has traveled daily to Sansome Street for about a year, classed the service as "satisfactory."

A veteran of three years of commuting, Bill Restaino of Sun Valley told me he uses the bus because it is "better and cheaper" than driving.

HE WALKS TO his work at Post and Grant Streets from a bus stop and answered "yes" when asked if he felt Greyhound service satisfactory.

Owen Stanley, who lives north of Walnut Creek, has been traveling to the Civic Center for five years. He feels the service is "all right" and prefers it to driving, which he says is "not as good."

Samuel Morgan of Pleasant Hill said he found the morning bus ride "really quite pleasant, and a chance to relax and read."

He works at Fifth and Market Streets and has been commuting for the past two years. He also told me he had tried driving at first, but found it "tiring, difficult and expensive."

Upper Happy Valley, Orinda Only Greyhound Commuter Trouble Spots

Present information and planning seem to indicate that freeway construction from Orinda to Pleasant Hill will leave the commuter little worse off than he is now, and in some respects, in a much better state of mind.

According to John E. McKirahan, president of the Contra Costa Commuters Association, only two "trouble spots" will be of a serious nature. These are Orinda and the Upper Happy Valley area.

Negotiations are presently being conducted in an effort to resolve the Orinda problem by providing parking space for commuters and locating a bus stop, probably on the south side of the interchange.

RECENTLY OFFICERS of the commuters association asked engineers of the State Division of Highways to show them plans for the freeway from Orinda to Concord, in order to get an idea of what restrictions the fencing off of a limited access freeway would put on commuter facilities.

Here is the result of investigation and study from the Charles Hill area of Orinda to the Monument area of Pleasant Hill.

There will be no difficulty at Charles Hill because on both sides of the freeway buses can use approach roads and continue back onto the freeway.

IT WILL BE difficult for commuters now boarding buses at Upper Happy Valley, Orchard Nursery, Hidden Valley and Sunnybrook Drive, because there will be no direct off and on route for buses. If the service is continued at these stops Greyhound will be forced to send buses on and off the freeway by devious routes and they have been reluctant to do this in other areas in the past.

Furthermore, if one stop is made for commuters at all these points, it will mean a distance of approximately a half mile to some commuters.

"If Greyhound is willing to consider making a detour to find a stopping place, one station can be set up to take care of all these people," said McKirahan. "If not, it will be hard on this group. Yet this and Orinda are the only spots showing any real difficulty."

IT APPEARS that Greyhound will proceed from the Upper Happy Valley grade separation along the frontage road and onto the present Mt. Diablo Boulevard instead of using the Lafayette By-pass.

This means that commuters in the area from Upper Happy Valley to Lafayette will get exactly the same service they are getting now, including flag stops.

Indications are that the buses will continue along the present highway as far as Acalanes junction. This is the present intersection of Pleasant Hill Road near Rick's Drive Inn.

The existing parking area will be demolished and it has been urged by the commuters group that the county make early plans with adjacent property owners for the use of bare land for commuter parking.

"THE COUNTY can effectively work with property owners when making adjustments for their roads and arrange to leave some empty ground for parking," commented McKirahan.

Many commuters now drive from

Civic Affairs OK's 'Special' Business Zone

Special Business zoning for nearly 25 acres of East Bay Municipal Utility District land on the west side of San Pablo Dam Road was supported by the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association Monday night.

Disagreement on whether the land is to be rezoned from Residential-Agricultural to Special Business or to Retail Business flared at the August 11 County Planning Commission hearing and further discussion was held over until next Wednesday night.

The entire background of the "misunderstanding" over zoning was presented to the representatives of approximately 25 organizations attending the Civic Affairs meeting by James Hupp, acting chairman of the Orinda Association's Orinda Planning Committee.

"I FEEL THAT THE area adjacent to the Village lends itself ideally to a Special Business District," said Hupp, "and the Planning Commission is well aware of it. Because of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company high-tension lines passing over much of the area the use is restricted.

"The Planning Committee feels that the land under these lines can be used for parking and the land back toward the creek would be ideal for building. The committee feels that a special business district is the only way to achieve the type of business district Orinda wants, and with adequate parking.

"WE ARE IN ACCORD with the recommendations of the Planning Commission as agreed upon that night."

Hupp referred to the recommendations of the Planning Commission on June 23 when Retail Business rezoning for the Pine Grove was denied and Special Business District rezoning for the San Pablo Dam Road site was recommended.

However, Hupp said, there seems to be "some misunderstanding" among the planning commissioners and representatives of EBMUD over the classification of the zoning.

The problem is complicated by the fact that one parcel of the land has already been sold to Robert H. Bolman, Dr. W. M. Caygill and Jack Buchter for a medical-dental center.

OTHER PARCELS HAVE been sold to Shell Oil Company and Standard Oil Company but agreements have not been finalized. A deposit for another parcel has been made by Jack Snow, co-owner of the Casa Orinda.

The motion, presented by J. J. Newman, Orinda Oaks Association and seconded by Paul Pollaczek, Glorietta Improvement Association, urged that the Orinda Asscoiation continue its work "to the end of bringing these plans to the final accomplishment and desires to offer its services in support of such work."

THE SPECIAL BUSINESS DISTRICT was described as "an arrangement which will best promote the orderly, harmonious development of a commercial center suited to Orinda."

Following the resolution to urge such a center, Mrs. Mitchell Farrar, chairman of the Womens Planning League of Contra Costa County, told the committee:

"We should decide now whether to go along with the same old trends on urban planning spreading to our beautiful suburban community or whether we should become bold and seek something on the order of the Los Altos development."

SHE ALSO SUGGESTED that Orindans consider the creation of a foundation which could purchase land and develop parks, a community center and allied projects.

No action was taken but the matter will be brought up again at future Civic Affairs meetings.

In other action the committee:

1. Appointed Horace Breed, Cecil Cantrill, J. J. Newman and Anne Sanford a committee to study the reactivation of the committee system within the Civic Affairs group.

2. Resolved that directors of the Orinda Association reactivate the Orinda News immediately "for the express purpose of keeping the residents of Orinda informed on the special problems facing us at this time."

Interchange Work Will Require Parking Changes

A request that parking be changed from diagonal to parallel on Moraga Highway from Brookwood Road to Mt. Diablo Boulevard was made Tuesday by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Recommended by the Board of Fire Commissioners, the request is the result of a new traffic pattern to be initiated at the crossroads that includes a prohibition of left turns from Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

THE CHANGE WILL go into effect sometime between September 1 and 15 when traffic will be shifted from the north to the south half of the freeway to allow construction of the north half, according to Resident Highway Engineer Don Young.

At that time, westbound drivers who wish to travel on Moraga Highway will have to turn right off Mt. Diablo Boulevard onto an access road and then turn left onto San Pablo Dam Road and cross Mt. Diablo Boulevard to get to their destination.

Eastbound drivers heading for San Pablo Dam Road will turn right off Mt. Diablo Boulevard onto an access road that will take them to Brookwood Road. They will then turn left onto Moraga Highway and cross Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

WHEN THE SYSTEM goes into effect, the present three-phase signal at the crossroads that also directs left turns will be replaced by a two phase signal which will result in a faster flow of traffic through the crossroads, according to Young.

It was the expected increase of traffic flowing through the crossroads shopping area to be caused by re-routing "left turners" that resulted in the fire board request.

Fire commissioners want parking changed so that there will be four lanes to handle the traffic instead of the present two, according to Chamber President Ernest Poll who was authorized to forward the request to the Board of Supervisors with chamber approval.

PARKING WILL ALSO be changed from diagonal to parallel on Brookwood Road when the re-routing occurs, County Traffic Engineer Basil Andrews said Tuesday.

That change was requested by the State Highway Department and has been approved, he reported. When the State is ready to re-route traffic, the county will be notified and will mark parking areas, he said.

Andrews also indicated that the request for a parking change on Moraga Highway is bound for almost certain approval.

Intraclub Meet at Park Pool Will Have Races in Open, Novice Classes

Tomorrow Orinda Park Pool will hold its intraclub swim races.

This year, for the first time, there will be two classes of events. The open races will be open to all members of Park Pool, while the novice races will be restricted to those members of the Pool who are not members of the swim team.

Dick Bottjer, in charge, feels that this will give a much larger group of children an opportunity to participate.

ALL EVENTS will be by age group in the following strokes: Freestyle, backstroke, butterfly and breaststroke.

Age groups will be: Six and under, 7-8, 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-16 and 17-90.

The first three place winners in each race will receive ribbons, both in the open and novice events.

Those events that require heats will have the trials run tomorrow morning, and all finals will be in the afternoon. The time of each race and the participants will be posted on the bulletin board at the pool.

Bottjer and Edwards hope for a record turnout of swimmers and onlookers.

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the swim team who had planned to go to the Mill Valley swim meet have indicated that they will give up the Mill Valley meet and join in the fun at Park Pool.

Next meet for the Orinda Park swim team will be the Far Western Championship in San Francisco next Thursday and Friday.

County Government, Schools Subject of AAUW Seminar

A day long seminar designed to provide a "behind the scenes" look into county government and school problems will be held beginning at 9:15 a.m., August 26, in the Mt. Diablo High School Auditorium, Concord, under the sponsorship of the five Contra Costa County branches of the American Association of University Women.

Divided into four sections, the seminar will be addressed by leaders of county government and schools.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS will include: B. O. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools; Donald E. Kitch, Chief of the Bureau of Guidance, State Department of Education; Drummond J. McCunn, J. Graham Sullivan, Joseph P. Cosend and Leland Medsker of the Contra Costa Junior College; Edward Clay, Contra Costa Park Council; Miss Rae Coffman, Contra Costa Planning Commission; William Penn Mott, National President of the Council of Park Executives and Superintendent of Oakland parks; Desmond Teeter, County Administrator; and Harry Brown and Dick Richardson, candidates for the office of County Sheriff.

"This is the first of what we trust will become annual seminars that will give us, citizens and taxpayers of Contra Costa County, an opportunity to both hear and discuss with our county's political and school leaders the problems that confront us all," Mrs. Robert Taines, president of the host A. A. U. W. branch, Concord, said today.

THE FIVE SPONSORING branches and their presidents are Richmond, Mrs. Raymond Stott; Martinez, Mrs. Richard L. Betzenderfer; Walnut Creek, Mrs. R. C. Olberg; Antioch, Mrs. Clyde W. Davis; and Concord, Mrs. Robert Taines.

The seminar schedule calls for registration of participants at 9:15 a.m. at the Mt. Diablo High School Auditorium on Grant Street.

Morning sessions which are divided into "County Schools" and "The Junior College," including a symposium on the twelve month school year, begin at 9:30 a.m.

Afternoon sessions, beginning at 1 p.m., include sections on "County Parks and Recreation" and "County Government."

Committee in charge of arrangements representing the Walnut Creek chapter includes Mesdames Ralph C. Olberg, Harold Mutnick, R. G. McLaughlin Jr. and Charles F. B. Price Jr.

Mrs. Price, past president of the Walnut Creek Chapter, originated the idea of the seminar.

Box lunches will be served those making advance reservations which may be made through Mrs. Charles F. B. Price, YE 4-6669; Mrs. H. E. Mutnick, AT 3-2658; or Mrs. R. C. Olberg, YE 4-2023.

THE FINISHING TOUCHES are applied to Judy Sagenkahn's costume by Edith Dinkin, in preparation for Walnut Creek Intimate Theater's production of "The Heiress." The costume play, dated in the 1850's, will open at 8:30 p. m. next Friday at Acalanes High School and will continue the following night. Mrs. Sagenkahn will play the leading role of the heiress, Katherine Sloper.

Ad Executive to Speak to Artists

The next regular meeting of the Diablo Art Association will be held August 23, 8 p.m. at the Guild Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek, and feature an outstanding commercial artist of San Francisco, Louis Shawl. The public is welcome to attend.

Shawl has been in the advertising art field since his graduation from the California College of Arts and Crafts in 1926. After 9 years as a free lance artist, he organized the art advertising company of Shawl, Nyeland and Seavey in 1935.

Shawl is a past president of the Artist Club of San Francisco, a member and former director of the San Francisco Advertising Club, and at present, a controller of the Society of Artists and Art, and a member of the board of trustees of the California School of Arts and Crafts.

At this meeting he will discuss what the commercial artist has to do and how he does it, showing examples of this type of art.

Magic, Puppet and Hobby Shows Set For Back-to-School Fete in Broadway

Small fry facing the opening of school will be flocking to the Broadway Shopping Center this weekend for the big Back-to-School celebration which opened today and ends September 7.

This salute to youth will be highlighted with larger-than-life boy and girl figures in plastic on the center's light poles. These mammoth outdoor displays, in color, will be illuminated from within for the open shopping nights. All of the stores have entered into this event and are individually decorated.

SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT features have been planned at Broadway to brighten the last days of freedom of the boys and girls who will soon be entering the long season of studies, exams, report cards, and the school night rule of "early to bed."

The first fun event will be a wonderful puppet and magic show by Frank and Dorothy Hayward in front of the Lucky Market on Monday, August 23 at 2 p.m., 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The second event will be a Hobby Show for all of the children on August 30 from 12 noon to 9 p.m., prizes to be given out at 9 p.m.

"Parents will find every store at Broadway brimming with the necessary apparel and gear to equip their progeny for the months of attending classes. They'll find, for instance, the new lines of luggage to take students boarding away from their own hearth. Even the houseware items needed to make of the alien quarters a home away from home are in plentiful supply," said MacDonald Products Co. spokesmen.

THE BROADWAY MERCHANTS are sponsoring the hobby show to see what kids have accomplished this summer and to give prizes to those children who have done a good job.

Entries are open to all the bright-eyed Walnut Creek scholars in grammar and high schools.

Hobbies will be displayed at the Broadway Shopping Center from 12 noon to 9 p.m. Monday, August 30.

APPLICATION BLANKS can be secured at the boys and girls department of the J. C. Penney store or from the Walnut Creek Recreation Department. All applications should be returned by August 27.

Hobbies must be crafts or collections. Individual entries will be divided into age groups for judging. First, second and third prizes will be awarded in each group.

The hobby show is free of charge. Prizes will be awarded at 9 p.m., August 30. Ice cream will be given to every entrant.

Stoneman Sought For Boys' Camp

Organizations seeking a rehabilitation camp for boys in Contra Costa County won a victory Tuesday as the Board of Supervisors agreed to seek use of partially-deactivated Camp Stoneman in Pittsburg for the purpose.

A letter signed by Chairman H. L. Cummings to the Army's post commanding officer asking lease of the post stockade and adjoining facilities was approved by the board.

"Many boys who are in need of county camp treatment are being sent to state reform schools because of the lack of a local facility," the letter said in part.

Monday Night Shopping Now In Broadway

Now you can shop on Broadway in Walnut Creek every Monday night. Starting Monday, August 23, Broadway stores will be opened both Monday and Friday nights until 9 p.m. Broadway is making shopping convenient for you.

It wasn't many years ago that night shopping, other than the traditional Saturday night, was unheard of. But merchants are finding that shopping habits change and that the customer wants to shop as a family at night. This is particularly true in the suburban areas.

So now you can shop at the Broadway stores two nights a week all year. Because of Labor Day holiday on Monday, September 6, all stores will be open until 9 p.m. on Tuesday, September 7.

Some of the stores such as Capwell's and others selling similar merchandise, will be open from 12 noon to 9 p.m. Sears, Roebuck and Company, because of carrying building lines, will be open 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

EBMUD Tax Rate Down One Cent

For the third consecutive year, the East Bay Municipal Utility District tax rate has been lowered, Louis J. Breuner, President of the EBMUD Board of Directors, announced today.

The EBMUD's new tax rate for the 1954-55 fiscal year will be 25 cents per $100 assessed valuation, a reduction of 1 cent from last year's 26 cent rate.

The tax rate for Special District No. 1 of the EBMUD (Sewage Disposal System) will remain at 11 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

In commenting on the tax reduction, which will mean a saving of more than $90,000 in the next year for the people of the EBMUD, Breuner said, "The new lower tax rate has become possible because of increased assessed valuation within district boundaries, plus economies effected in the operations of the utility district.

"This tax rate reduction is consistent with the district's policy of holding tax and water rates at the lowest levels possible and passing on to the people the savings realized from broadened tax bases and increased efficiency of operation," Breuner said.

The tax revenues received by the utility district cover approximately 60 per cent of the annual costs for bond retirement and interest payments. Funds to meet the balance of these costs are derived from water and power sales and other revenues.

The original bonded debt of $77,000,000 has been regularly reduced, and now amounts to approximately $43,000,000. The property owners of the district now have an equity of approximately $83,000,000 in their non-profit public utility.

Plans Being Made For Observance of UN Day Locally

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lyon of Orinda were hosts to the executives of the Mt. Diablo Council for United Nations last week.

The Lyons are Contra Costa County co-chairmen for UN week, which is being celebrated throughout the nation October 17 to 24.

Mayor E. C. Counter of Walnut Creek, UN week chairman for his city, attended the meeting and expressed hope that Walnut Creek will have an outstanding program of celebration.

FREDERIC CROMWELL, president of the AAUN Council for Northern California, invited the public to attend a UN seminar on charter review October 23 and 24 at San Francisco State College.

One of the highlights of the UN week celebration in Contra Costa County will be a dinner held at the Rancho Grande Inn, Lafayette, October 23.

The Mt. Diablo Council is planning a concentrated program of study for the year on specialized agencies of the UN. Mrs. George Taubman, State UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Educational Fund) chairman for California, will assist in these discussions.

THE FIRST PROGRAM will be sponsored by Mrs. Harvey Lyon, UNICEF chairman for Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. This meeting on UNICEF will be held at Las Lomas High School September 9 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Lyon will speak briefly of her visit this summer at UNICEF headquarters in South America.

Persons desiring additional information concerning the UN Council may contact Mrs. Paul Gaboury, 1300 Milton Avenue, Walnut Creek. YE 4-4417.

Christian Science

The importance of relying wholeheartedly on God, divine Mind, for guidance will be stressed at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible (Proverbs 3:5,6): "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

The practical availability of spiritual guidance will also be stressed in the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (254:10-12): "When we wait patiently on God and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path."

The Golden Text is from Daniel (2:20, 21): "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: . . . he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding."

All-Day Confab On School CD September 20

Final plans for an all day conference on Civil Defense and the role to be played by the county schools were made at a recent meeting of school superintendents at the Contra Costa County Civil Defense Control Center.

B. O. Wilson, Superintendent of County Schools, has designated September 20 as the day for this conference, which will be attended by all county school administrators and key personnel.

Also present at the meeting to further explain the proposed program were Mrs. Muriel Shoesmith, State Office of Civil Defense; Mrs. Edna Selley, County Civil Defense Public Information Officer; and George K. Burton, Assistant Director, Contra Costa County Civil Defense.

Brown Backers Plan Party

The first "Bucks for Brown" party will be held Sunday, between 1 and 5 p.m. in the spacious grounds of the Ed Rowland home, 1367 Pleasant Hill Road, Lafayette.

Charging $1 per guest, it will set the pace for such parties now being planned throughout the county. Money accrued will go toward the campaign fund.

Refreshments will be served and the large swimming pool with adjacent dressing rooms may be used by the guests.

Lieutenant Harry A. Brown, candidate for sheriff with Mrs. Brown and leading campaign workers will be there to greet the guests.

Prominent residents throughout the county will attend, many of them bringing contingents of guests wishing to meet and talk with Brown.

Brown is daily speaking to organized groups two and three times over all areas of the county, representing every segment of the population.

Wise shoppers patronize hometown merchants. They save money —and they know that the hometown merchant is interested in the community.

CD, Welfare Chiefs Study Mass Care

William Golden, Chief of Contra Costa County's Civil Defense Evacuation and Welfare Services, called a meeting August 10 of all subcouncil coordinators and Welfare Service Chiefs to explain the responsibilities of his service in Area 9.

The State Office of Civil Defense has stipulated that Area 9 must be able to care for 50,000 persons in the event of a major disaster in the Bay Area. To accomplish this it is necessary to utilize almost every existing facility, Golden said.

Golden and his assistant, Robert Wymer, have been able to designate 74 sites for mass care, which includes feeding, clothing and housing, which will accommodate the number requested by the state office.

The sub-councils represented at the meeting were: Kensington, Carquinez (Crockett area), Las Lomas (South of Walnut Creek to Alamo), San Ramon, Lafayette, Pleasant Vista (Pleasant Hill and Buena Vista areas), Clayton Valley and West Pittsburg.

Democrats Plan Party Tonight

A non-political party will be held by Central Contra Costa Democrats tonight at 8:30 p.m. in the new IDES Hall on Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek.

A novel feature of the get-together will be a prohibition of political discussion. The party will include dancing, games, refreshments.

Gas and electricity are cheap in California!
When the Smiths moved to California last year, they were delighted with their low gas-electric bill.
Their P. G. and E. bill for one month was $15.81
Where they used to live, the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $30.23
Take advantage of your low P. G. and E. rates! Enjoy more of the time-saving and work-saving appliances that make living so much easier.

"Our dishwasher did 860 dishes last month for just 65¢" says Mrs. T. Leaming Smith, Jr., 21 Cove Road, Belvedere, (shown here with her husband, and two of their three daughters.)
"Three meals a day, all through the month, add up to a lot of dishes to wash. So I consider this wonderful dishwasher a real life-saver. The built-in waste disposer is a big help, too. But what really amazes me is the low cost of running the dishwasher. Imagine, it washed and dried eight hundred sixty dishes last month for sixty-five cents! That's my idea of a bargain!"

Commuters Will Suffer from Few Freeway Problems

Pleasant Hill to Acalanes junction to take advantage of the fare differential. For many of them it is no further to this point than it would be to a Pleasant Hill stop, and the bus fare is considerably less.

There will be ample room at the Acalanes junction interchange for bus stops, and the sole problem remains commuter parking.

THERE WILL BE no stops between Acalanes junction and the present stop located near the Hendrick Piano Company. A major interchange will be located there, and indications are that buses will not take the interchange but will stay on ground level.

There is again ample space for bus loading, but no facilities for parking. Commuters will not be inconvenienced by the lack of stops between Hendrick Piano Company and Acalanes junction because there is no demand for commuter service between these two points, according to the commuters.

Presumably, buses will not take the freeway, but stay on the present route followed by Mt. Diablo Boulevard as they go through Walnut Creek and until they reach the present stop by Stan's Brick House.

THIS WILL MEAN that commuters in this entire area will be served as at present. The Alvarado Road stop will be eliminated but there will be a stop at Walden Road as established last year.

This is located half way between San Luis Road and S.O.S. Drive.

There will be no difficulty from this point to the Monument stop as buses will follow frontage roads rather than the freeway and will be free to make unlimited stops.

Highway engineers have indicated that freeway plans for the monument area are "10 to 15 years off" and plans for construction are not yet available.

The present reconstruction, which will be a four lane highway, will not interfere with commuter action. The ticket depot is about 300 yards south of the old monument location — now called the Pleasant Hill Station — and will remain where it is.

THE ONLY DIFFICULTY in this area is that commuters must park nearly 400 yards from the bus stop and they resent this. Commuters have expressed a serious need for buses to continue toward Pacheco to provide better service to the Gregory Garden-Pleasant Hill area instead of cutting off toward Four Corners.

When an interchange is constructed it will negate the possibility of bus stops for some distance on either side of the monument, but this is not to happen for some time, according to State Highway engineers.

Of course, this list of stops and facilities refers only to local service buses. There are now express buses which leave Concord for Oakland and San Francisco and which go through without stops.

Such service will probably continue after freeway construction has been completed, and buses would use the freeway and interchange system all the way into the East Bay.

Juniors, Guests at Annual Barbecue

With strains of Hawaiian music still running through their minds, the Lafayette Juniors can remember happily their annual babbecue which was such a great success Saturday evening. Over 70 members and their husbands enjoyed the cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lorens of 2732 Kinney Drive.

Mrs. Herbert Breckling assisted the host and hostess in serving guests who then drove to the Melody Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Crocker for the barbecue. Mrs. Don Andresen served as hostess at the Crocker home and Don Young and his able staff cooked the steaks to perfection.

MRS. DAVID COLWELL was food chairman, assisted by Mesdames Herb Breckling, Bill Hawkins, Bob Lorens and George Zurilgen.

Mr. Cowell was kept very busy snapping pictures of everyone who posed behind the figures of Hawaiians drawn by Mrs. Dick Burnside for the Penny Arcade. Mrs. Andresen also organized other games and prizes in the elaborate setting of the Arcade.

Mrs. Burnside and her committee, composed of Mesdames Vern Adams, Ed Firby and Orville Jones, outdid themselves on the art work from the clever invitations to the leis, flowers and backdrop decorations for the entertainment.

ENTERTAINMENT CO-CHAIRMEN were Mrs. Joel Kitchens and Mrs. Paul Lanferman. A men's barbershop quartet and skit group entertained with many old favorite songs with accompanying acts, much to the pleasure of the audience. Mrs. Joel Kitchens and Mrs. Jim McLaughlin entertained with a novelty dance to the tune of "Goofus."

As a fitting climax to a party with an Hawaiian theme, Mesdames Vern Adams, Dick Burnside and Don Young danced several Hawaiian numbers. Assisting Burnside in the men's numbers were: Vern Adams, Walt Kenzler, Angus Crocker, Paul Lanferman and Ed Firby.

Joe Von Overveen ably served as master of ceremonies.

All members and their spouses are looking forward to next year's party with great anticipation although they are in agreement that it will have to "go some" to out do this year's party!

JOAN OLIVIA HEDEMARK and George Blake Calder are smiling just as a newly engaged couple should before they announce their plans to a host of friends and relatives. The announcement was made recently at the home of the parents of the bride-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hedemark, 7 El Caminito, Orinda. — Courtesy Oakland Tribune

AGD Alums Hold Party, Barbecue

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae held their annual barbecue Tuesday at the Reliez Valley Road home of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Barrows. Afternoon swimming was followed by a buffet supper around the pool.

A short business meeting was held in which Mrs. Davis S. Roberts Jr., president, reported on her recent trip to the national sorority's 50th anniversary convention at Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada.

ALUMNA MRS. Robert White, of White's Interiors, Oakland, spoke on the interior decor of the new sorority chapter house on Warring Street, Berkeley.

Hostesses for the barbecue were: Orinda, Mesdames L. Jack Block, coordinator, Percy B. Dawson Jr., Jack E. Warner; Lafayette: Mesdames W. T. Barrows, Thurston B. Perry; Walnut Creek: Mesdames James M. Gunter, William T. Worden, Gerald V. Ball, Clark R. Burton and Franklin T. Williams.

I'VE GOT A SECRET!

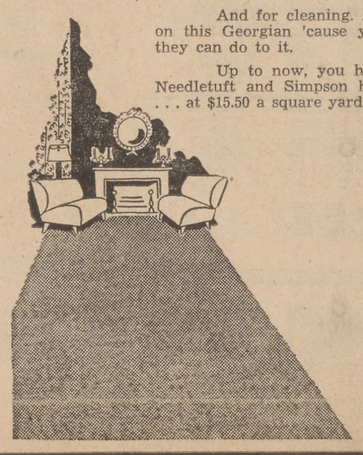
by Bill Simpson

We're kind of jumping the gun on this, 'cause all of the high-powered advertising gear from the east hasn't arrived yet.

But I'm just itching to tell you that Simpson's is the first in the East Bay to show Needletuft's new, popular priced

100% Nylon Carpeting

We even beat the big-city merchant princes on this. With a little conniving, I wrangled the first large carpet sample. This Georgian NYLON carpet will, conservatively, wear three times as long as a wool carpet of the same pile, height and density. Some of the tests . . . believe it or not . . . show up to 8 times the wear . . . but Needletuft says to play it safe at "three."



And for cleaning. . . you can turn your dogs, cats and kids loose on this Georgian 'cause you can clean up dog-gone nearly everything they can do to it.

Up to now, you had to be a millionaire to afford NYLON. But Needletuft and Simpson have knocked this little problem in the head . . . at $15.50 a square yard.

Cordially,
Bill

German Bearded Iris Obliging

A mighty obliging and gratifying garden plant is the German Bearded Iris.

For this common form of iris is adaptable to a wide range of climatic situations, requires little care, remains practically free from disease and provides very lovely flowers.

According to the California Association of Nurserymen, nurseries usually have iris from June on through summer, until heavy rains begin. It is best to plant after the heat has passed.

Planting should be comparatively shallow, with the rootstocks singly spaced about one foot apart and set in the direction you want the plant to grow. Iris do not require much water, but they should have a thorough soaking about a month before flowering.

Generally, fertilizer is not needed. If any is used, get your nurseryman to provide you with a brand of bonemeal especially intended for iris.

Your Garden

Vines Can Be Used to Control Climate; They Also Have Real Aesthetic Effect

"FROM THE VINE COMES THE GRAPE — and a number of other important though often less tangible features.

For instance, vines may be used as a means of climate control and a source of shade. They may be used as screens to reduce light glare and to furnish privacy.

Too, there are many vines of such beauty that they may be trellised, espaliered or grown on a wall for their aesthetic effect alone. And vines are a natural for covering up fences or other unsightly objects.

RECENT INFORMATION from the California Association of Nurserymen stresses the use of vines for climate control and cooling. The darker foliaged vines will tend to absorb heat, while lighter foliaged varieties reflect it.

But of course their more obvious use in controlling climate is an arbor, trellis or in natural growth where they reduce the amount of sunlight reaching a given area.

Where it is desirable to shelter an area during summer only, deciduous vines can be used, since they will shed their leaves during the cooler months and let sunlight through. Evergreen vines will, of course, shade the area the year 'round.

YOUR NURSERY can advise you regarding a combination of deciduous and evergreen vines where some greenery is wanted the year 'round, but to a lesser degree in winter than in summer.

One of the best of the all-purpose evergreen vines is Star Jasmine. It has daintiness, fragrance and star-like blossoms that are projected on tiny stems.

While its growth is somewhat slow, it is quite orderly and does not become heavy or entangled. It will do well in sun or shade, but with preference for shade where summer months are extremely warm.

Heavily covered with dark, oval leaves about 3 inches in length, foliage is one of Star Jasmine's greatest attractions. The heat-absorbent leaves will do an excellent job of attractively and efficiently filtering sunlight.

AMONG THE Trumpet vines that can be used both for attractiveness and to provide shade and climate control, the Violet or Purple Trumpet is one of the most spectacular.

This dark foliaged evergreen bears a profusion of violet, trumpet-shaped flowers, veined with red. It is successful both in sun and shade.

The waxy dark green foliage of the Hibbertia is neat the year 'round and it will provide brilliant yellow flowers in spring and summer. As in the case of most climbing vines that can be trained on arbor or trellis, Hibbertia is also excellent as a ground cover.

WISTERIA will furnish a fine overhead canopy or vertical screen, since for sheer climbing ability it is probably unexcelled.

It is excellent in front of windows, where shaded cooling is desired. Long clusters of lavender or white flowers add to the interest of this deciduous vine in summer.

Because of its liking for travel it usually requires quite a bit of pruning. It has wide climate adaptability.

BUT OF ALL THE vines your nurseryman has to help you with climate control, among the best in providing an overhead awning or cloistering walk are the Grapevines.

Many varieties are vigorous growers and provide ideal, large foliage for summer screening and excellent fruit in addition.

Cooling Thought: Winter Coloring By Iceland Poppy

Here's a cooling thought: The problem of winter color is easily taken care of by including some Iceland poppy plants in the winter garden.

This is one plant that thrives during the cool, moist months of our winters and yields an amazing multitude of gay, bright blooms in orange, yellow, cream, pink and white.

This show of color continues for months on end during the coldest wettest weather.

Cool, moist soil is necessary for best results, and light shade conditions are preferred, but Iceland poppies will prosper even in full sun during cool months.

Summer Advice Given in Current Garden Checklist

By The California Association of Nurserymen

Timely hints offered by your Garden Checklist this week include:

1. This is a good time to give the lawn its late summer feeding.
2. Try seedling in the open ground: Alyssum, Calendula, Godetia, Clarkia, Larkspur, Shirley Poppies and Virginia Stock.
3. If the lawn is hard and fails to take water readily, perforate the soil with a lawn spiker or aerator.
4. If you want color in your garden during the winter months, plant NOW! Your nurseryman will be pleased to advise you.

Drive carefully through residential streets and save a child's life.

Class will meet from 9 a.m. to noon and tuition is $12 per month.

Tiny's, Tri City Crown Contenders

The past week of play in the Walnut Creek Softball League has been a wild and wooly one.

Tinys, at present, is out in front for second half honors with eight wins and two losses with games with Super Saver and Tri City yet on tap.

Tri City is next with five wins and three losses and games with Tinys, State Farm, Forbrags and Super Saver yet to be played.

Other team records show Grodins and Forbrags with four wins and four losses, Super Saver with four wins, five losses; Ricks with four wins, six losses, and State Farm with one win, seven losses.

During the week, Forbrags beat Super Saver 22-6 on Wednesday, Tinys beat State Farm 6-4, and Grodins beat Tri City 4-2 Tuesday, Super Saver forfeited to Forbrags Monday and State Farm dropped Super Saver 5-4 last Friday.

Coach at Cal Poly Workshop

George DeKlotz, Las Lomas High School football coach, is among 100 coaches and physical education men attending the seventh annual California Workshop at California State Polytechnic College. The two-week workshop, sponsored by the California Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, ends today.

Highlighting the workshop was a football and basketball symposium. Heading the football discussion was Chuck Taylor, head coach at Stanford University and named coach of the year in 1953. Also on the football symposium was Homer Beatty, head coach at Bakersfield College, and George Bican of C. K. McClatchy High School in Sacramento.

Week to Wind Up Second Half Play

The coming week in softball finds the windup of regularly-scheduled games on tap at the Walnut Creek City Park with playoffs including a tie game and protested affairs.

Dates of the playoffs have not been announced as yet by League President Hec Miles.

Play for the week finds State Farm and Tri City in a lone game tonight. Monday, it's a double header with State Farm and Forbrags opening while Tinys and Super Saver show in the nightcap.

On Tuesday, no games are scheduled, with playoffs a possibility, while on Wednesday Super Saver tangles with Grodins in the evening's number one game, with Tri City and Forbrags playing at 9:15.

Thursday and next Friday are two more nights open for playoffs.

Where Do You Shop?

Changes in the shopping habits of residents of the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek area are apparent these days. More and more people are doing more buying at home.

It has been well-established for some time that local shopping makes simple economic sense. Even before becoming initiated to other aspects of "country living," new suburbanites realize that it is no longer logical to run to downtown metropolitan areas for light shopping.

But we are now at the point where shopping at home is attractive on its own right, not just because it's the only alternative to the long drive of five, ten or more miles over heavily congested highways.

There are more and more people who have come to realize that they would prefer to buy in Walnut Creek, Orinda and Lafayette stores, even if all other things were equal — if there were no long drive to the city.

In general, there seem to be two main reasons.

In the first place, shopping here is different. "Country living" means spacious homes on quiet, out-of-the-way streets where children can play; but it also means a casual, relaxed tempo of life, in neighborhood and social activities and in shopping as well.

The men and women who own and operate the stores in our local communities are themselves people who live in the country. They know their customers and their needs and are in business to satisfy them.

One of the traditional charms of the small town is the slower pace and the familiarity which exists between officials and residents and businessmen.

Secondly, shopping at home is attractive now because it offers more than it ever has before. Some do all their shopping locally, from groceries to furniture and appliances.

Merchants have been able to refurbish and expand, offering more and better selections. New businessmen and large metropolitan firms, observing the trend, have built stores here.

Once a housewife with urban shopping habits could not have been satisfied to shop here for clothing or household furnishings, but she now finds a variety of responsible stores with all kinds of clothing, furniture, shoes, garden and patio equipment, hardware, and almost anything she might want.

And shopping at home is altogether healthy, because our merchants are basically important to the community.

They pay a lion's share of the taxes which buy police protection, schools, fire protection, roads, sanitation and utilities.

We too often forget that a part of our expenditures come back to us when the businessman pays taxes — but only if that merchant is in our community.

Furthermore, it is the merchant who is regularly called upon for contributions to welfare and service fund drives. It is the merchant who, through the chamber of commerce and the merchants' association and service clubs, helps to solve community problems.

The trend is toward more shopping at home, but there are still those who have not acquainted themselves with their local stores. Some do not yet recognize the positive reasons for buying in the communities where they live.

It is their own benefit and to the benefit of the community that they start now to patronize local businesses.

Builders Exchange Names Officers

At its first regular board of directors meeting August 5, the new Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange elected permanent officers to serve for the coming period.

The newly elected regular officers are: President, Jim Austin, of R. N. Burgess Co., Walnut Creek; First Vice President, Les Iford of Iford Construction Co., Martinez; Second Vice President, Hans Wachsmuth of Four Corners, Danville; Secretary, Bill Stone of Pacific Agencies of Walnut Creek; Treasurer, Paul Brunelle of Concord Electric Co. and Victor Engel, appointed to continue as executive director.

Other members of the board of directors are, Jack Crabbe of Crabbe Electric Co., Pittsburg, Jack Mannie of Diamond Heating & Sheet Metal of Antioch, Frank Jackl of Jackl Masonry, Concord, Larry Wright of L. C. Wright Co., Lafayette, Marcel Lescure of Lescure Co., Lafayette, and Walt Nellis of Nellis and Son Painting, Pittsburg, and Ed Larmer of Walnut Creek Hardware Co.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

The enclosed pamphlet put out by the United Crusade does not specifically show me where my home area of Lafayette-Orinda-Walnut Creek was the recipient of any of the funds collected.

I am an employee at the Oakland Naval Supply Center and the "heat" is already being put on for collections for this years funds. I feel that any contributions I will make should be on a purely voluntary basis so I am resisting pressure to build up the Center total contribution until I can be shown that our area is really a benificiary.

There are hundreds of Center employees living in Contra Costa County and I know they would make direct contributions locally for home use rather than to the drive down here, so will you please study the situation and publish the facts so that we can have some ammunition to use to forestall any "forced" deductions here.

If our area is being helped, fine, but I for one want to be sure.

Name withheld on request

Editors note: A total of $34,647 was returned to the Diablo Valley area, Orinda to Pleasant Hill, by the East Bay United Crusade in 1953-54. Funds raised locally amounted to $17,435. Local agencies benefited from the drive to the extent of receiving 91 per cent of the funds requested, even though the drive itself only reached the 86 per cent mark.

Boy Scouts received $23,373; Campfire Girls, $458; YMCA, $9442; Herrick Memorial Hospital (for share of work done in this area), $458; White Cane Week, $458; Cerebral Palsey, $458.

Funds raised for the area through the East Bay United Crusade were about 45 per cent better than what each group was able to do separately in previous drives.

Inside Out -

By Chuck Bosley

Every citizen of Central Contra Costa should read the article in the July issue of Harpers entitled "Crisis in the Suburbs" and written by Frederick Lewis Allen, the late editor of that magazine.

It's about planning, but starts from and returns to the problem that confronts us — namely, "What is happening to 'country living'?".

Allen talks about the East Coast and the area outside New York and Philadelphia particularly, pointing out that suburban development in much of that area is within a few years of filling up the entire countryside.

It's the kind of thing that we can well imagine here, with increasing development threatening to completely fill Contra Costa's central valley, from San Ramon to Martinez and from Orinda to the foot of Mt. Diablo.

Growth is shattering dreams of rural peace, he says, and he suggests that suburbanites are often doing nothing about it, but wishfully hoping that time would stand still.

Bold Planning and Land

The answer is bold planning, according to Allen, but he admits the following difficulties: :1) The outcry for planning is never as loud as the yells of protest from those who would be hurt; 2) It is sometime hard to find the proper public agency to do the job; 3) A high type of statecraft is required because any agency which tries to plan boldly will be called high-handed and there is the danger that it will indeed be so.

Allen's second point is no difficulty here. The County is definitely the one to do the job in Contra Costa.

Anyway, Allen's final conclusion is that the first requirement is to set aside large tracts of land now where no building will be permitted at all. Such land would provide breathing space for residents and preserve some of the feeling of un-fenced freedom which once brought commuters out of town, he says.

Every governmental body and every citizens' association must consider ways and means of preserving open land for the benefit of succeeding generations, he concludes.

His parting remark: "It's later than you think."

Recently the Board of Supervisors tried to stop dumping of refuse along rural highways by placing some 100 bright yellow trash cans in auspicious places along county roads.

In the words of Supervisor Warren Buchanan, the program was designed to have a good "psychological effect" on residents. Now, less than two months later, it appears that the program has had a slightly different result — a bad psychological effect upon the supervisors.

In the first place, the cans weren't used very much . . . many people just couldn't seem to make it to the containers, according to reports, which revealed that more refuse was dumped near the trash cans than in them.

So the board decided this week to call it quits and collect the containers for use in park areas in the future.

Then they found out that only 83 cans will be returned, because 17 have been stolen.

About Spots on Automobiles

Every year about this time, someone brings up the question of those strange little spots which begin appearing on automobiles.

For years now, as I recall, the topic has been drug out again and again . . . but never with any conclusive facts presented. In fact, there seems to be a conspiracy to keep the discussion alive . . . a kind of tacit agreement to play the game and never investigate far enough to come up with some decisive proof.

The discussion, as you will remember, centers around whether bugs or trees are responsible. This year, Dr. Y. Tagosaki of the County Health Department, proposes the theory that it's pollen from eucalyptus trees carried by bees . . . a theorem which will appeal to both the "It's the insects" and the "It's the trees" schools of thought.

But . . . Dr. Togasaki admits that the truth has not been definitely determined.

The upshot of the whole thing is that some civic-minded soul should take it upon himself to stop this thing now. The investigation promises to be fascinating and the man who solves the problem, once and for all, may expect to achieve certain fame.

The recent activities of housewives in the Sherman Acres and Fair Oaks subdivisions in Pleasant Hill deserve attention, because this week they finally accomplished something they have worked for a long time.

Sherman Acres school children cross Monument Boulevard on their way to Fair Oaks School.

Mothers did everything they could think of to get some kind of traffic control. Last year they succeeded in getting swinging metal stop signs which they themselves operated during school hours. But it didn't work successfully, so they initiated a letter-writing campaign to Assemblyman Donald Doyle.

This week they received word that the State Division of Highways will spend some $15,000 to install electric signal lights at the intersection.
